SIGNATURES MANDATORY

for Rider, Owner and Trainer even if the same individual - SIGN all three places!

Reminder: Trainer is the ADULT on the grounds who is responsible for the care of the horse. Trainer is NOT necessarily a riding instructor. The only person who should sign this space is the person who is actually responsible for the care (feed, health) of the horse.

There must be a signature on the Trainer line in order for the bridle number to given out.

Coach signature is required when the coach will be on the grounds. Coach must be a member of USEF or pay the non-member fee.

When the care and ownership of the horse is in the hands of a Junior, that Junior's PARENT may sign the Owner line on behalf of the Junior, and may sign the Trainer line if there is no Trainer. Non-member fees will not be charged.

STABLING REMINDER

If you are planning to stable with a group, please try to identify the group with one name AND have one person in the group send a complete list of horses/riders.

ENTER QUALIFYING CORRECTLY:

First, you do NOT need to indicate "Q" on classes that are eligible to be counted for CDS Qualifying. The "Q" is necessary only for GreatAmericanInsurance/USDF Regional Finals qualifying.

It is also your responsibility to enter the class correctly: Add the "Q" to the class number. Then check the day sheets and the FINAL SCORE SHEETS to be certain that the score is listed as a Qualifying score.

After the show, it is then prudent to do a score-check on www.usdf.org. If they have posted the scores for the show in question and the score is not reflected as Qualifying, please contact USDF and the Show to find out what the problem might be.
